

CURRENT SCHOLAR-TUTORS IN THE SCSS M.TH. PROGRAM
(all scholar-tutors hold doctoral degrees in their discipline or the equivalent)

Scholar-tutors who can direct students through the entire program:

E. Christian Brugger (Moral Theology; Philosophy), Denver, CO – tutorial only Adrian Calderone (Law/Jurisprudence), Brooklyn, NY – tutorial only
Warren Carroll (History), Manassas, VA – tutorial or online
John Corso (Political Science [Public Administration]), Potomac, MD – tutorial or online
Michael Coulter (Political Science), Grove City, PA – tutorial or online
E. Patrick Foley (History), Azle, TX – tutorial or online
Joseph H. Hagan (Catholic Social Ethics) – tutorial only
Philip Harold (Political Science), Steubenville, OH/Pittsburgh, PA – tutorial or online
Stephen M. Krason (Political Science), Steubenville, OH – tutorial or online
Nicholas Lund-Molfese (Law/Jurisprudence), Elmwood Park, IL – tutorial or online
Kevin Schmiesing (History), Sidney, OH – tutorial or online
Anthony Santelli (Economics), Sleepy Hollow, NY – tutorial or online (initial in-person meeting required)
Cynthia Toolin (Sociology/Anthropology of Religion), Cromwell, CT – online only
Joseph Varacalli (Sociology), Garden City, NY – tutorial only

Scholar-tutors who can direct students only for the trimester in their academic discipline (another scholar-tutor would be chosen for the first trimester in general Catholic social thought studies, and both would read the thesis):

Emil Berendt (Economics), Adrian, MI – tutorial or online
Michael Farrell (Economics/Business), Montreal, QC – tutorial or online