

CURRENT SCHOLAR-TUTORS IN THE SCSS M.TH. PROGRAM
(all scholar-tutors hold doctoral degrees in their discipline or the equivalent)

Scholar-tutors who can direct students through the entire program:

Adrian Calderone (Law/Jurisprudence), Brooklyn, NY - tutorial only
John Corso (Political Science [Public Administration]), Potomac, MD - tutorial or online
Fr. Lawrence J. Donohoo (Theology - Catholic Social Teaching), Emmitsburg, MD - tutorial or online
Andrew Essig (Political Science), Center Valley, PA - tutorial or online
Joseph H. Hagan (Catholic Social Ethics) - Little Compton, RI - tutorial only
Philip Harold (Political Science), Irving, TX - tutorial or online
Stephen M. Krason (Political Science), Steubenville, OH - tutorial or online
Anthony Santelli (Economics), Kirtland, OH - tutorial or online (initial in-person meeting required)
Kevin Schmiesing (History), Sidney, OH - tutorial or online
Cynthia Toolin-Wilson (Sociology/Anthropology of Religion), Cromwell, CT - online only
Joseph Varacalli (Sociology), Garden City, NY - tutorial only

Scholar-tutors who can direct students only for the trimester in their academic discipline (another scholar-tutor would be chosen for the first trimester in general Catholic social thought studies, and both would read the thesis):

Emil Berendt (Economics), Emmitsburg, MD - tutorial or online
Michael Farrell (Economics/Business), Montreal, QC - tutorial or online